INDEX

The following index to Edward L. Parker's 1851 The History of Londonderry contains roughly 5,800 entries. The index covering all pages through page 311 has been contributed by the Fiske Genealogical Foundation of Seattle, Washington, while pages 312-358 have been indexed by Picton Press. Women have been indexed only under their maiden names. In many cases variant spellings of surnames have been grouped under one common spelling, with appropriate cross-references. Nevertheless, as with all indexes, readers are advised to check under all possible spellings of a surname. Only one reference per page is indexed; please remember that the name indexed may well occur more than once on that page. First names which have been abbreviated in the original book have been spelled out in full in this index.
